Such candidates should upload Non-Creamy Layer Certificate [for State Education purpose only] in the prescribed proforma obtained from the Village Officer concerned. The claim made in the online application will be final and cannot be changed subsequently.

(iv) Candidates who are children of inter-caste married couple of which one is SC/ST who will be eligible for educational and monetary benefits admissible to SC/ST as per Para 2 (ii) of G.O (Ms) No.25/2005/SCSTDD dated 20-06-2005, if eligible for reservation under SEBC, will be granted the same based on the community shown in the Non-Creamy Layer Certificate [for State Education purpose only] obtained from the Village Officer and inter-caste marriage certificate obtained from the Tahsildar to be uploaded by them to the online application.

(C) Claim for Reservation under Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes Quota

1. Candidates claiming reservation under Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes quota (See Annexure II & III for the list of SC/ST communities) should obtain the caste/community certificate from the Tahsildar concerned, in the proforma given in the online application form specifically meant for them. SC/ST caste status of children, whose parents contracted inter-caste marriage, will be subject to the orders/clarification issued in G.O (MS) No.25/2005/SCSTDD dated 20.06.2005, judgement dated 10.08.2005 of the Full Bench of the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala in WP 2483/2005 and connected cases and GO (MS) No.109/2008/SCSTDD dated 20.11.2008.

2. As per G.O.(MS)No.109/2008/SCSTDD dated 20.11.2008, the children born of inter-caste married couple of which one of the parents is SC/ST can claim the status of SC/ST on proof of the conditions of acceptance, customary traits and tenets under which such children are brought up.
3. The competent authority issuing SC/ST community certificate to children born of inter-caste married couple, of which one of the parents is SC/ST, should ensure that the claimant is subjected to same social disabilities and also is following the same customs and traditions and the community has accepted that person to its fold as such. The authority to issue caste certificate should also ensure that:
 - (i) Each case shall be examined individually in the light of the existing facts and circumstances.
 - (ii) The claimant has suffered disabilities - socially, economically and educationally.
 - (iii) The society has accepted the claimant to their original fold as one among them and is living in the same social tenet.
4. The Christian converts who have subsequently embraced Hinduism should upload caste/community certificate to the online application form. The following certificate should also be got recorded by the revenue official below the certificate "The certificate is issued after observing the guidelines issued in Government Circular No.18421/E2/SC/ST/DD dated 15.12.1987".
5. The applications for the reserved seats of Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes candidates which do not contain SC/ST Certificate (Community Certificate) from the Tahsildar in the prescribed format will not be considered on any account for claiming community reservation against the seat reserved for SC/ST candidates (vide G.O (MS) No.31/90/SC/STDD dated 25.05.1990).The community certificate should clearly specify that the candidate himself/herself (not the father or mother) belongs to the Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes. The community certificate as per G.O (MS) No. 136/07/RD, dated 27.04.2007 will be accepted. The candidates who are reconverted to Hinduism from Christianity of Scheduled castes origin should upload community certificate from the Tahsildar concerned along with the Gazette Notification regarding re-conversion.
6. The claims for reservation under Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribes quota will also be subject to verification and clearance by the Screening Committee constituted for the purpose by Government vide G.O (P) No.19/2002/SCSTDD dated 20.04.2002 and as authorised by Section 6 of the Kerala (Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes) Regulation of issue of Community Certificates Act, 1996 (Act 11 of 1996).
7. The SC/ST claims in respect of those who have migrated from one State to another will be subject to the provisions of G.O (Ms) No.10/86/SC/ST/DD dated 12.2.1986. Only the children of those who had migrated to this State before the promulgation of the Constitution (Scheduled Castes) Order 1950 and the Constitution (Scheduled Tribes) Order 1950 and ordinarily reside in this State can claim SC/ST benefits from the State of Kerala. They must be able to prove this, if required.
8. The seats unavailed by the SC/ST candidates will be filled by Other Eligible Community (OEC) candidates. (See Annexure IV for the list of OECs).

WARNING

1. Those who produce false SC/ST Certificate for claiming reservation under SC/ST quota shall be liable for the penalties stipulated in Section 15 of the Act referred to in Clause (C) above. Candidates and their parents who make such applications are warned that in addition to prosecution they will have to suffer the following consequences, in case the SC/ST certificate produced is found to be false and the candidate does not belong to any SC/ST communities, under Section 16 of the Act "Benefits secured on the basis of false community certificates will be withdrawn:

2. Whoever not being a person belonging to any of the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes secures admission in any educational institution against a seat reserved for such castes or tribes or secures any appointment in the Government, Government Undertakings, Local Authority or in any other Company or Corporation owned or controlled by the Government or in any aided institution against a post reserved for such castes or tribes or enjoys any other benefits intended exclusively for such castes or tribes by producing a false community certificate shall, on cancellation of the false community certificate, be removed by cancelling the irregular admission in the concerned educational institution, or as the case may be, removed from the said service forthwith and any benefit enjoyed by him as aforesaid shall be withdrawn forthwith.
3. Any amount paid to such person by the Government or any other agency by way of scholarship, grant, allowance, stipend or any other financial benefit shall be recovered as if it is arrears of public revenue due on land.
4. Any degree, diploma or any other educational qualifications acquired by such person after securing admission in any educational institution on the basis of a false community certificate shall also stand cancelled on cancellation of the community certificate obtained by him."

(D) Claim of OEC candidates

1. Claim of OEC candidates against the un-availed seats of SC/ST candidates:-

Other Eligible Community(OEC)candidates are eligible for the unavailed seats, if any, under SC/ST quota, as per GO(P)No.135/87/H.Edn dated 06.05.1987.They should specify their community status in the application. Such candidate should upload Non-Creamy Layer Certificate [for State Education purpose only] from the Village Officer concerned in the proforma available to the online application as per GO(P) 1/2015/BCDD dated 01.01.2015 and GO(MS)No. 4/2015/H.Edn dated 05.01.2015. (b) Publishing of Answer Keys

- (i) After the examination, the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations will publish the “Answer Keys” on the website www.cee.kerala.gov.in. If any candidate has any complaint regarding questions or answer keys, the same should be submitted to the CEE in writing along with supporting documents and a fee of Rs.200/- per question by way of Demand Draft in favour of CEE, payable at Thiruvananthapuram, within 5 days from the date of publication of the answer keys on the website.
- (ii) If the complaint filed is found to be genuine, the fee remitted while filing the complaint will be refunded. Complaints received after the stipulated date and without requisite fee and supporting documents will not be considered under any circumstances. Complaints received by e-mail/fax will not be considered on any account.
- (iii) All complaints received on Answer Keys will be referred to a subject expert committee to be constituted by the CEE. The recommendations of the committee will be final. Necessary modifications will be made in the published answer keys based on the recommendations of the expert committee. Individual replies will not be given to the candidates on the decision of the committee.

14. Resolving of tie and Preparation of Rank list

- (a) Resolving of tie: In case there is tie among the candidates who secure same total marks,
- (i) Candidates who score higher marks in Part A of the Entrance Examination will be placed higher in the rank list.
- (ii) If the tie still persists, the age of the candidate will be considered, the elder being preferred to the younger. (The benefit of tie will be given only to those who have uploaded supporting documents as required).
- (b) Rank List: The Commissioner for Entrance Examinations will prepare and publish the rank list of candidates, whose selection is based purely on merit as assessed in the entrance examination.
- (c) Category Lists - Separate category-wise list will be published for SEBC/SC/ST Reservation, Person with Disability etc. Candidates are advised to verify the category list published by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations and satisfy themselves regarding their position in the list. Complaints, if any, in this regard may be sent to the Office of the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations within the notified time after publication of the category list, for necessary action. Complaints received thereafter will not be entertained. Revised category list will be published after considering the objections/complaints, filed by the candidates.

- (d) Inclusion in the merit list or allotment, will not entitle the applicant for admission to the course, unless the applicant satisfies the rules regarding the eligibility for admission to LLM course as laid down in the Prospectus for Admission to LLM course 2020-21.

15. Falsification of Certificates

The admission to the Entrance Examination or rank obtained in the Entrance Examination would not automatically entitle the applicant for admission to the course, unless the applicant satisfies the rules regarding eligibility for admission. Furnishing of false certificates or particulars would result in forfeiture of the candidature as well as cancellation of admission to the course.

16. Centralised Allotment Process (CAP) and Online Submission of Options

The Centralised Allotment Process (CAP) will be done online to give allotment to the LLM course. Candidates will be allowed to exercise their options for courses/colleges as per their ranks in the entrance examination for admission to LLM course -2020 conducted by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations. The allotment of courses/colleges for the General Merit and reservation categories will be strictly in accordance with the rank list and category lists mentioned in clause 14 above.

- (i) The allotment to all the courses for all categories will be made through a Centralized Allotment Process which is a Single Window System (SWS) of Allotment to give allotments to the LLM seats in the Government Law Colleges and Government Merit seats in Private Self Financing colleges based on the options submitted online by the candidates who have been included in the Rank list and Category lists prepared by the CEE based on the entrance examination for admission to LLM course -2020. The Centralised Allotment is a simple and transparent process of allotment to the courses and it gives the candidate opportunity to exercise his/her options for colleges of his/her choice conveniently in the order of his/her preference considering all those available to be chosen from. The allotments will be strictly based on the options exercised, the rank obtained and eligible reservations of the candidate. Candidates should register options only to those courses and colleges which they are sure to join on allotment.
- (ii) The Single Window System of Admissions for the LLM course 2020 will be done by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations (CEE), Kerala, with the technical support of the National Informatics Centre (NIC).
- (iii) The Courses and the Seats in the Government Law Colleges and Government Merit seats in Private Self Financing colleges to be allotted by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations will be included in the SWS and will be done as per the provisions of allotment.
- (iv) Candidate to register options: Options can be registered only through the website, www.cee.kerala.gov.in. Candidates have to register their options in the 'Home Page' of the candidate through the website within the stipulated time. Candidates can access this website and follow the instructions given therein to register their options for courses and colleges. Options submitted to the CEE by Fax, Post, Hand delivery etc., will not be processed or considered on any account for allotment of seats.

(v) Time schedule for registering options: The facility for registering of options will be available only during the period specified in the notifications to be issued by the CEE. Wide publicity will be given through electronic and print media regarding the schedule and related matters. The facility will be withdrawn once the time period is over and candidate will not have access to this facility after the specified time. A candidate, not registering his/her options as per the time schedule announced, will not be considered for allotments against any of the seats available then, irrespective of his/her rank. No extension of time will be granted under any circumstances for registering options.

(vi) Eligibility for registering options: Only those candidates included in the Kerala state Rank list of LLM Entrance Examination, Kerala 2020 prepared by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations are eligible to register their options online. Moreover, the candidates registering their options should satisfy all the eligibility conditions as per Clauses 4 and 5 of the Prospectus for Admission to LLM course - 2020. Academic eligibility should be satisfied on the date of admission to the course.

Note: Principal/Head of the Institution will be personally responsible for verification of eligibility conditions as prescribed in the Prospectus for Admission to LLM course -2020 of the Government of Kerala, when the candidate reports for admission. Only those candidates who are found to be qualified as prescribed shall be admitted to the college/institution irrespective of the fact that he/she has an allotment through the SWS.

(vii) Essentials for registering options: The candidate can log on to his/her home page by entering the details (i.e. Application Number and Password) correctly. The Roll number of the candidate is a five-digit Number allotted to the candidate. Application number of the candidate is a seven-digit number assigned to the applicant while he/she submits the online application to CEE for the LLM course 2020

(viii) Procedure for Registering Options: Any candidate, who wishes to register his/her options, should have the 'Application number' and 'Password' readily available with him/her. The candidate must also have access to internet facility. The candidate should follow the procedure given below for registering options:

(ix) Accessing the website: The candidate can access the website, www.cee.kerala.gov.in from any computer having internet facility. The platform can be Windows-based or Linux-based and the browser preferably the latest version of 'Fire fox' or 'Google Chrome'.

(x) Logging on to the Candidate's Home page: The candidate can log on to his/her home page by entering the details (i.e. Application number and Password) correctly. If the system finds that the one who has requested for 'login' is the genuine candidate, the candidate will be directed to his/her 'Home page'.

(xi) How to register options in his/her Home Page: By clicking on the 'Option Registration' tab, the Course - College - Fee combination list will be displayed in the Home Page. Here all the eligible options of the candidate will be displayed and the candidate should select only those options in which he/she is interested. The candidate is expected to select the options in his/her order of preference. All options registered by the candidate will be processed. If a candidate gets allotted to a particular seat, based on his/her option, he/she is bound to accept it, failing which, he/she will lose that allotment as well as all the existing options. The option once lost will not be available in the subsequent phases.

(xii) Online option Confirmation for participating in subsequent phases of allotment:

Candidates who are having valid options and are willing to participate in the second allotment/subsequent allotment have to log in to his/her Option Registration Page and Confirm their options by clicking the 'Confirm' button available in his/her Option Registration Page. Candidates can delete their unwanted options or alter the priority of existing options only after the online option confirmation.

(xiii) Necessity of Saving the selected options: For saving the work, the Save menu item is to be clicked. It's important to save the work frequently. The last saved data only will be available in subsequent sessions. All unsaved data will be lost on exit, by logging out or other means. So, please make sure that the selected course-college-quota combinations are saved before exit. CEE will not be responsible for the loss of unsaved data due to not saving the data before exit.

(xiv) Don't press refresh or back button: Don't refresh the page by any means other than by clicking the given buttons or tabs. Also, no attempt should be made to open the option registration page in multiple tabs or windows. If for any reason you exit the system by logging out or otherwise, you can start all over again from the home page after logging in.

(xv) Printing of the Option List based on the options registered: After saving the selected options (after necessary additions, deletions and re-arrangements), a printout of the final list of selected course-college combinations may be taken and kept as a record for your own reference.

(xvi) Logging off from the Home page: Once the candidate is satisfied with the options registered, he/she should 'Log off' the system by clicking on "logout" link. Don't exit the system without logging out. The process of 'Option Registration' is complete when the candidate logs off. This action is compulsory for preventing the misuse of his/her Home Page by others.

(xvii) Processing of Options and Allotment:

a. Allotment Schedule and Allotment Memo: After the period earmarked for registering options, the options will be processed and the allotment for all courses will be published on the website, www.cee.kerala.gov.in, on the date notified by the CEE. The allotment memo, the printout of which can be taken from the website, will show the course and college to which the candidate is allotted and the fee to be remitted for the course allotted. The schedule of allotment will be notified separately. Necessary notifications will be issued by the CEE.

b. Remittance of Fee: The prescribed fees for the course will have to be remitted by the candidate at the college allotted to him/her while taking admission.

c. Admission for all courses:

Candidates allotted to courses, and who remit the fee as prescribed, should take admission in the college allotted as per the schedule prescribed by the CEE. Those Candidates who do not remit the fee or join the college on or before the date prescribed for the same will lose their allotment as well as all the existing options. The options once lost will not be available in the subsequent phases. The candidates are liable to pay admission fee as prescribed by the University concerned at the time of admission.

d. Online Option Confirmation

Candidates who are having valid options and who are willing to participate in the second allotment/subsequent allotments have to log in to his/her Home page and confirm their options by clicking the 'Confirm' button available in his /her Home page. Candidates can delete their unwanted options or alter their priority for existing options only after the online option confirmation. If a candidate who does not confirm the higher order options by clicking the 'Confirm' button available in his /her Home page, his/her higher order options will not be available in subsequent phases. However, his/her, existing allotment shall be retained, subjected to the condition of clause 16 [xvii (2)] and 16 [xvii (3)].

- e. After each allotment, the options below the 'allotted one' of the candidate will automatically be removed from the option list of the candidate. For example, if a candidate had registered 10 options in all, and if he/she is allotted his/her 5th option, all options from 6 to 10 will be removed from the option list. Since the 5th option is the allotted one, it will not be seen in the option list. Options from 1 to 4 only will remain valid and will be considered for future allotments.
 - f. If a candidate is satisfied with an allotment and does not want to be considered against his/her remaining options, he/she will have the facility to cancel all the remaining options. He/she may also cancel specific options among the remaining options as per his/her desire. The candidate will also have the facility to alter the priority of the remaining options. But the candidate will not be permitted to register any fresh options to the existing ones.
 - g. The facility for confirmation and cancellation/deletion/alteration will be available for a specified period of time as notified, after which the facility will be withdrawn. A candidate retaining all or any of the options after each allotment is bound to accept the next allotment, if any, given to him/her. If the candidate fails to accept the allotment, he/she will lose all the allotments/admission and will not be considered for any further allotments to any course or college.
 - h. Forfeiture of the claims in CAP: The claims in Centralised Allotment Process conducted by the CEE will be cancelled under the following reasons.
 - (i) Non-payment of tuition fee as specified in the allotment memo.
 - (ii) Non-joining of the course/college within the stipulated time as specified by the CEE.
 - (iii) Discontinued with TC to join courses other than the courses allotted by the CEE or for any other reason.
 - i. Last Rank Details: The last rank details of the allotment will be published after each allotment and will be made available on the website. The last rank given will be the rank of the candidate and not the position in the category list.
- (xviii). Other Rules related to registering of options:
- (i) Candidate can register all the available options if he/she desires so. However, it is not compulsory that the candidates should exercise all the options.
 - (ii) A candidate will not be allotted a seat in a course of a college if he/ she has not opted the course-college combination during option registration process of CAP for LLM-2020
 - (iii) A candidate is bound to accept an allotment as per the priority registered in the Option list and he/she has to surrender the seat already occupied by him/her, if he/she is allotted based on options furnished against arising/future vacancy. Request to retain the existing admission after an allotment is made, based on the option registered, will not be considered under any circumstances.

- (v) Failure to report for admission in the allotted institution, after remitting the required fee within the stipulated time will result in the forfeiture of his/her allotment to that course and for any course in any stream. He/she will not be considered for online allotment to any future/arising vacancies in any stream.
- (iv) For each phase of CAP for LLM -2020 subsequent to the initial phase, confirmation of the higher order options by logging in to the home page and clicking the 'Confirm' button is mandatory to participate in that phase of allotment even if no cancellation/re-arrangement of options is desired. Non-confirmation of higher order options for a particular phase of CAP will lead to automatic deletion of higher order options, making them unavailable for the subsequent phases also.
- 17. Further Allotments: Details regarding further allotments after the first Counseling will be notified by the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations. Additional seats, if any, added/sanctioned during the validity period of the rank list will be filled in the final Counseling on the basis of Position in the Rank list and Category List mentioned in Clause 14.
- 18. Spot Allotment: Spot allotment/admission for filling up the remaining vacant seats, if any, may be conducted after the completion of the online allotment process. A qualified candidate included in the rank lists concerned is entitled to attend the Spot Allotment/Admission Process. The Commissioner for Entrance Examinations is authorized to issue necessary orders regarding Spot Admission/Allotment in due course.
- 19. Post Allotment Activities:
- (a) Reporting at the College: Candidates who get allotment will have to report before the Principal/Head of the Institution concerned for admission on the dates notified with the required documents:

The candidate is specifically instructed NOT to inform his/her PASSWORD to the institutions concerned.

- (b) Verification of Documents: The Principal/Head of the College or Institution shall be personally responsible for verification and satisfaction of the correctness of the records produced by the candidate at the time of seeking admission in the college/institution. The University concerned shall also verify the records produced by the candidate who got admission in the college/institution.
- (c) Failure to Report for Admission: Candidates who do not take admission on the prescribed date will lose their admission. They will not be considered for any further allotments in Centralised Allotment Process (CAP).
- (d) Admission/Allotment of seats is governed by a statewide principle of selection. Accordingly, the total seats available in all the Institutions will be distributed statewide for the different categories by applying mandatory reservation principle as mentioned in Clause 8 (B). While doing selection as per the statewide break up of seats, an institution wise break up of seats for the various categories, following the principle of reservation will also be maintained for the allotment of seats for the course in each college.
- (e) Selection / Allotment of College: Selection/Allotment of a candidate to any college will be based on the rank of the candidate and the availability of seats, at that point of time when the candidate files option. The procedure adopted for admission will be as per the selection principle approved in G.O. (Ms)

No.122/98/HEdn dated 7-10-1998. According to the G.O., “candidates of the reserved category who will otherwise come in the open merit list will be allotted to the college of his choice provided he would have been eligible for allotment to that college if he was treated as candidate coming under reservation quota. While a reserved category candidate entitled to admission on the basis of his merit will have the option of taking admission to the colleges where a specified number of seats have been kept reserved for reserved category, when computing the percentage of reservation he will be deemed to have been admitted as an open category candidate and not as a reserved category candidate”.

- i. The allotment to colleges will be as per the break-up of seats for the course in each college. But on applying the principle of selection mentioned above, the break-up of seats for allotment in certain colleges are likely to change.
- ii. Allotment memo (Final Selection Memo) will be issued to the selected candidates after the Online Allotment Process. It is obligatory for the candidates to report to the College to which he/she is selected. Candidates should report for admission in the college with their parents/guardians. No extension of time for reporting to the college will be granted under any circumstances. Failure to appear before the Principal concerned for joining the course on the notified date and time will result in the forfeiture of his/her admission to the course and he/she will not be considered for any vacancies arising in future.
- iii. Vacancies arising after the first round of allotment of seats will be filled up according to the rank and options submitted by the candidates and observing the reservation rules on the basis of the priority given in the options. There will be no mutual transfer between the candidates from one college to another.
- iv. Candidates who obtain TC after joining a college will not be eligible for further Allotments in Centralised Allotment Process (CAP).

- (f) No allotment of seats to the 1st year of the LL.M 2020-21 course will be made after 31.10.2020 even if vacancy / vacancies arise thereafter.
- (g) Weeding out Rule: The records of the LL.M Entrance Examinations will be preserved till 31st March 2021.
